About AACTMAD

The Ann Arbor Community for Traditional Music and Dance is a non-profit membership organization which enriches people's lives through events celebrating traditional music, dance, song, and related arts.

AACTMAD presents and supports events and programs that preserve living traditions of dance, music, and song, build community among the participants, and provide opportunities for healthy activity, fitness and exercise. AACTMAD also facilitates music, dance, and song activities sponsored by non-member individuals and groups and rents the facility to members of the community.

AACTMAD's meeting and event facility provides a flexible, comfortable space for meetings, social gatherings, celebrations, music and dance events.
